

PAUL AEGERTER TAKES OVER MAISON CLAVELIER

After several years at the head of the House and Domaine Clavelier, Isabelle Thomas handed over the estate to Paul, her son, to ensure its continued existence. This historic house of 2.8 hectares thus remains in the family and is added to our Domaine.

In 1935

In the heart of Burgundy, Antoine Clavelier decided to create his own Wine House after having acquired a solid experience as a cellar master with various producers. He was advised by his uncle Jean Pinot (the aptly named!) who was then a renowned vineyard owner and wine broker.

In 1992

For the first time in over 50 years, the house is changing hands. A native Burgundian and co-owner of an 18-hectare family estate, Henri Noël Thomas, in partnership with his wife Isabelle Thomas, took over the Maison Clavelier in 2001.

In 2005

Gérard Clavelier, cellar master for 40 years, is leaving the family home for a well-deserved retirement. In 2006, La Maison acquired a winery in Fixin. The Clavelier estate expands in the Nuits-Saint-Georges, Bourgogne Pinot Noir and Bourgogne Hautes-Côtes de Nuits appellations. Driven by a passion for wine, Henri Noël and Isabelle Thomas combine art and tradition with respect for the terroirs to offer the palates of connoisseurs the greatest wines of Burgundy.

The Wines

Clavelier wines are composed of 3 ranges: les Festifs, les Essentiels et les Best-Of.
