

For more than 25 years, Jean-Luc Aegerter and his son Paul, who joined him in the adventure in 2001, have been making fine, balanced Burgundy wines. With their love of their craft and their expertise their goal is to produce wines that respect their terroir to the full. From regional appellations to grand cru vintages, Maison Aegerter offers nearly 40 appellations from 50 hectares of vineyards.

Signature AA Aegerter, in the sun...

The «Signature AA» range is a selection by Jean-Luc and Paul Aegerter of sunny, fresh wines to be drunk on any occasion. Remarkable value - for incredible pleasure!

PAYS D'OC IGP CHARDONNAY

A few words on the appellation...

This Pays d'Oc wine is from limestone slopes of Languedoc-Roussillon that benefit from ideal sunshine. It is white wine from a single grape variety.

100% Chardonnay

Its robe is bright, pale gold with amber highlights. Its nose is intense, floral and fruity (pear). On the palate this wine is rich with floral and fruity notes.

This Pays d'Oc Chardonnay is an ideal aperitif wine. It is also the perfect accompaniment to fresh or cooked shellfish, fish, white meat and hard pressed cheese.

Serve between 10 and 12°C. It is best enjoyed young.
